SIR JAMES SMITH'S
COMMUNITY SCHOOL

Dear Parent/Carer

There's very little that can be said with any certainty about a return to school as we approach the summer half term. One thing that can be said with confidence is that staff here are working incredibly hard to find the most effective ways to support your children whilst normal lessons remain impossible. We know that many of our pupils do not have access to a laptop but almost all have a smartphone which is why videos (easily viewed on a smartphone) such as the update for parents here:

are amongst some of the ways we will look to work with your children in the weeks and months ahead.

I hope you and your family are able to enjoy some sort of break over the coming half term week, the school will be in touch again during the week beginning the 1 June with an update to the home learning information which will be sent out to you and also available on our website.

Keep well,

Yours faithfully
